

Opponents (other player than current) is center top with the other players around them with their scores.

Other player is the top half of the screen. Show the current roll and how many of the same dice they have to get tensies.

Current player (the user) is the bottom half. Show a similar view to the other player except apparent that this is the users. Show a roll button.